May 30 is the closing date for audit bids to be received at the department.

May 30 is also the deadline for receiving bids on our dietitian service. As of Friday we have received 2 bids.

The state reviewed our disaster plan last week. There are some changes and additions to make but they did like the details of our business continuity plan.

Board members need to complete the Form 990 Board Review Checklist and return it to the office by June 15th.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

1. USDA Meals/Medicaid Meals – April information provided.
2. Family Caregiver Support Program – April information provided.

3. SSC Membership – The Board will select SSC members at the June meeting.

4. Ratification of Executive Committee Action – The Executive Committee met on 5/4/10. After an in-depth discussion the Executive Committee voted to use part of the agency’s donated funding to make repairs to our building including adding a 10’ x 24’ building addition and a pitched roof. A motion was made by Wanda Smith and seconded by Joyce Findley to ratify the Executive Committee’s recommendation. Motion carried.
 - 4a. The committee also voted to suspend all agency charitable donations due to the current financial situation. A motion was made by Jim Boettcher and seconded by Donnie Wagers to ratify the Executive Committee’s recommendation. Motion carried.

5. Election Results – An SHL election for three representative positions was held in the Mark Twain Region the week of May 3 – 7. In the election there were eleven ineligible registered voters casting ballots and there were two extra cast ballots- this did not affect the election results.
